Guidelines and Expenses for General Use of Church Facilities

Bethel A.M.E. Church is pleased to make its facilities available for events consistent with the best interest of the church and community. If your request is approved, the church assumes no responsibility for conditions or acts beyond its control. The parties making the request are expected and required to use the facilities with normal care and consideration. Acceptable scheduled use for any activity shall not exceed four (4) hours. An overtime fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) will be charged for each additional hour or for any part of an hour used.

To avoid cross scheduling of events, all services and/or events shall be scheduled through the Administrative Assistant or Senior Pastor, with Trustee Board approval. Events not sanctioned by the church office are not supported. Your cooperation is appreciated. All fees are due two (2) weeks prior to event.
